J. Mack Sholl, of Carthage, Ill., deputy internal revenue collector, who was here to see to the enforcement of the war revenue law, left for Peoria this morning.

Among the troops sent from Whiteside county there was not a man who calls Fulton his home. Probably the available citizens there have not yet been mustered out of Bastian's "Woodmen defenders."

Hon. J. T. Browning fell and broke his arm at his farm, near Rock river, last Friday. He started to go down stairs into the basement, and the stairs gave way under his weight, precipitating him to the bottom.

W. H. Lamont is back at his accustomed haunts on the river front after a week's absence. He is somewhat modest about explaining the mystery involved, but congratulations are no less sincerely welcomed. It's a girl.

A young Rock Island business man disappeared from the city last night without apprising his family or friends as to his intended whereabouts, and much concern is felt for him. His departure is attributed to domestic troubles.

It may be that our boys of Company A will go on from Santiago to Porto Rico. As will be seen by the press report, Gen. Miles has already embarked on the Yale, on which he and the 6th Illinois went to Santiago, for Porto Rico with troops. Company A may be among them.

Miss Annie McBride, aged 21, of 605 Twelfth street, was operated on by Dr. J. DeSilva Saturday for the removal of a needle which she swallowed when a child of two years, and which had caused her great suffering since. The needle was located just below the hip joint and removed.

The Rock Islanders who have returned home from the Indiana gas belt, where they are employed in the glass factories, have gone into camp for the summer months at Manhattan Beach. They pitched tents today under the name which they have used for several seasons—Camp Natural Gas. It is a happy crowd.

The Port Byron Globe says sportsmen are very much interested in the welfare of the quail, and hunters should remember that there is a penalty attached for killing that game bird. This seems to have been a favorable season for their propagation, and a great many flocks are reported in that immediate neighborhood, and some even being seen in the town.

President McKinley has announced his purpose to furnish one of the rooms in Mercy hospital at Davenport. The hospital at the outbreak of the war offered the government nurses in case any were needed beyond those then engaged. While their services were not needed, the generous and patriotic act impressed the president, and his kindness to the institution is the consequence.

Rev. Hugolinus, O. S. M., president of St. Joseph's college, Effingham county, Ill., was in the city yesterday to investigate the differences between the Franciscan sisters and the medical board of St. Anthony's hospital as to the engaging of a resident physician, and which resulted in the board withdrawing from the hospital. Rev. Hugolinus has been agreed upon by both parties to decide the matter.

Mrs. J. H. Porter, of Moline, has received a telegram from her husband, Lieut. Porter, U. S. N., saying definitely that that he had been discharged and would return home at once. The cause for the relief of Lieut. Porter and possibly Lieut. Hunt is not known, unless it is that there are more officers than enough. They may also have been subjected to such a physical examination that they were unable to pass, or again the department may have objected to taking officers who had no previous experience in commanding in actual naval service.

Oliver Stephenson succumbed to heart failure Saturday at his home, 4409 Seventh avenue, after a brief illness. Mr. Stephenson, who was born in Sweden in 1834, had resided in Rock Island since 1891, coming here from Swedesburg, Henry county, Iowa, where he had been engaged in farming for many years. He was a member of the board of directors of Augustana college and a prominent member of the Swedish Lutheran church of Moline. Five daughters and four sons survive. Mrs. Stephenson died in 1891. Funeral services were held at the residence at 4 o'clock this afternoon, after which the remains were shipped to Swedesburg for interment.

Spending Money.

It is an excellent thing to give children as soon as they arrive at about 12 years, or even before, a little allowance for spending money and an account book. Show them how to keep an account of small expenditures and make it a condition that they do so if they wish to receive their allowance. There is no instruction more necessary to children than instruction in the wise management of money. Children should be taught early what true economy is and to exercise their judgment—not their fancy—in making purchases. A little instruction now, and experience if need be, of the genuine discomforts of extravagance may save them from much suffering in after years. —New York Ledger.

He Had Changed.

A widow once called upon an artist and asked him to paint a portrait of her husband. "When can he sit?" inquired the artist. "He can't sit at all," said the widow, "he's dead." "Then you will have to furnish me with his photograph," said the artist. "He never had his picture taken," said the widow. Nevertheless the artist undertook the job, and when he had finished the work he asked the widow to come and see it. "It's a fine picture," said she, "and you'll please send it to my home—but how the old man has changed." —Boston Herald.
